Dortmund, commonly known as Borussia Dortmund (German pronunciation: [boˌsiˈflaː, dˌɪltmˌnt]), [5] BVB (pronounced) professional sports club based in Dortmund, North Rhine-Westphalia. It is best known for its men's professional football team, which plays in the Bundesliga, the top tier of the German football league system. The club have won eight league championships, five DFB-Pokals, one UEFA Champions League, one Intercontinental Cup, and one UEFA Cup Winners' Cup. Founded in 1909 by eighteen football players from Dortmund, the football team is part of a large membership-based sports club with more than 145,000 members, [6] making Borussia Dortmund the third largest sports club by membership in Germany. The club has active departments in other sports, namely in women's handball. Since 1974, Dortmund have played their home games at Westfalenstadion; the stadium is the largest in Germany, and Dortmund has the highest average attendance of any association football club in the world. [7] Borussia Dortmund's colours are black and yellow, giving the club its nickname die Schwarzgelben. [8] [9] They hold a long-standing rivalry with Ruhr neighbours Schalke 04, with whom they contest the Revierderby. They also contest Der Klassiker with Bayern Munich. In terms of Deloitte's annual Football Money League, Dortmund was in 2024 ranked as the second richest sports club in Germany, and the 12th richest football team in the world. [10] Moreover, under the directorship of Michael Zorc in the 2010s, Dortmund have cultivated a reputation for spotting and developing
