Alguns indicadores podem ser utilizados para avaliar o tamanho e o sucesso de um clube de futebol. O número de títulos nacionais ou internacionais, a base de torcedores, o desempenho financeiro da A influência global são os fatores importantes a serem considerados;

Quando se trata de títulos nacionais, o Benfica lidera com 37 títulos da Primeira Liga, enquanto o FC Porto segue com 29 campeonatos! No entanto, também o FC Porto tem tido mais sucesso em competições internacionais e tendo vencido a Liga dos Campeões na UEFA duas vezes; o Sporting ainda não conquistou esse feito.

Em termos de base de torcedores, é difícil determinar o clube com maior número de simpatizantes! No entanto, o FC Porto tem uma forte presença na região do Norte de Portugal, enquanto o Benfica tradicionalmente popular em Lisboa e no centro da país.

Quanto ao desempenho financeiro, o Benfica tem um orçamento maior do que o de FC Porto, mas isso não necessariamente reflete no sucesso geral do clube!

Por fim, a influência global também é um fator a ser considerado. O FC Porto tem uma longa tradição de desenvolver e revelar talentos jovens - tornando-se um clube bem respeitado e reconhecido mundialmente! Por outro lado, o Benfica possui uma grande presença online com um número significativo de seguidores em redes sociais.
