Victory and defeat An outstanding fighter might receive a laurel crown and money from an appreciative crowd but for anyone originally condemned ad ludum the greatest reward was manum ission (emancipation), symbolised by the gift of a wooden training sword or staf f (rudis) from the editor.

The winning gladiator could appeal to the crowd for mercy, and sometimes the organizer would spare the defeated gl adiator based on the crowd's reaction. However, the final decis ion rested with those in charge of the event. Contrary to what popular movies po rtray, gladiatorial fights weren't always fights to the death.
